

Cochin University College of Engineering Kuttanad, Pulincunnu.
Cochin University of Science and Technology

Dear,

The Cochin University College of Engineering Kuttanad (CUCEK), Pulincunnu conducts one of its high profile technical festivals, named as Innovia 2k18 from 18th January to 20th January 2018. The only rural campus of the University, CUCEK is established in a place where there are many challenges for technologists and engineers. Ranging from farming below sea level, decentralized sanitation, mechanization of agricultural activities, construction on soft soil, flood mitigation to power generation from waste materials, varies the challenges. Initiated as a collective and dedicated effort of a few students of CUCEK, the Innovia 2k18 is now deep rooted in the hearts of every CUCEK-ian and aims at catalyzing and motivating the quest for knowledge among students. Through the technical competitions, expert talks, workshops, exhibitions and project presentations in Innovia 2k18, the students of various academic institutions including various departments of the University shall enrich themselves with extended exposure to their area of interest and share and gain more information. The exhibition stalls and programs are open to school children and the general public, also. The programs will be inaugurated by Prof.(Dr.) Saji Gopinath, CEO, Start-up mission, Kerala and Director, IITM-K and the function will be blessed by eminent academicians from the University. The students and staff of the College wholeheartedly welcome you to the inaugural function of the technical festival, Innovia 2k18.

Sincerely,

Principal

General Convener
